Reading-

- serve as reading tutors for other students or for adults;
- create books or other written materials for other students, the public, or web sites;
- read and write for seniors or the infirm/sick;
- edit brochures or other documents;
- teach reading to young children;
- translate documents for people who do not speak English;
- promote reading through advocacy campaigns, public service announcements (PSAs), book drives, or public readings;
- design and construct reading areas; and dramatic, artistic, or musical performances of texts and literature.

All projects must relate in some form to the “Just Read, Florida!” Reading Initiative by including some reading/writing element(s).
