

Volunteer hours are tracked so that schools with a specified number of hours may be recognized by the district and the state with the Golden or Silver School Award. The following describes activities that do qualify, followed by those that do not.

Academic Activities

Assistants - In classrooms, libraries, offices, clinics, and guidance

Tutoring

Mentoring

Chaperoning

Special Programs

School to Work

Math Superstars

Science Fair Judges

AmeriCorps Volunteers

Take Stock in Children

PTA/PTO service / meetings

Guest Speakers

Success at Work

Student Safety Patrol

Very Special Arts

Yearbook

School Advisory Council

Junior Achievement

Special Olympics

Big Brothers/Big Sisters

Teen Trendsetters

Other Activities

Scorekeeper for athletic events

Field trip chaperones

Attendance at school volunteer training workshops

Band and sports assistance

Providing unpaid childcare for children while parents volunteer or attend school functions

Fund-raising events

Unpaid coaching for athletic or academic teams

At-home projects

School staff members who volunteer before or after duty time or during planning or lunch periods

Activities that Do Not Qualify as Volunteer Hours

Court-ordered community service

College Interns

Boy Scout/Girl Scout leaders meeting on school property