Civics/History –

- conduct, compile, record, publish, film, or depict history of a local community, individuals in a community, or historic locations (cemeteries, buildings, natural features/sites, forts, Native American sites);
- organize advocacy campaigns on topics in the public interest;
- gather and disseminate information about local services available to residents and visitors;
- create murals depicting local history;
- teach peers about democratic processes through events, student-made videos, performances (including puppet shows), lessons, and hands-on activities;
- create children's history books;
- serve as museum docents;
- reenact historic events;
- restore or recreate historic structures;
- institute forums on topics of public interest;
- record oral histories focusing on different eras;
- teach about the importance of voting;
- produce tip sheets or guidebooks on how to effect positive community change.

All projects must relate in some form to the "Just Read, Florida!" Reading Initiative by including some reading/writing element(s).
