

Title I, Part D – Neglected and Delinquent Programs

Title I, Part D, of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001, provides funding to support the academic program in facilities serving neglected and delinquent children. The funds are used to provide supplementary resources to enhance the education programs in the facilities served. Following is a list of facilities served and the personnel funded Through Title I, Part D, for those programs:

Alternative Education Office : Pat Jordan, Transition Facilitator, Countywide

PACE – Katherine Caldwell, Transition Facilitator

Marquinia Betts-Fisher, Transition Counselor (hired by PACE)

Polk Halfway House – Sharon Gricius, Transition Facilitator (50%)

TBA, Reading Resource Teacher (50%)

Polk Regional Detention Center – Katherine Sivills, Transition Facilitator (45%)

Avon Park Youth Correctional – Leslie Zeegers, Transition Facilitator

Brenda Stearns, Reading Resource Teacher

South County Jail – Katherine Sivills, Transition Facilitator (35%)

TBA, Reading Resource Teacher (50%)

New Horizons – Katherine Sivills, Transition Facilitator (20%)

TBA, Reading Resource Teacher (50%)

Christopher King, Adjudicated Youth Assistant

Florida Sheriffs' Youth Villa – Sharon Gricius, Transition Facilitator (50%)

TBA, Reading Resource Teacher (50%)

Antonio Richardson, Adjudicated Youth Assistant