

Scissor's Can Be Fun!

Take a large storage container and save all of the used wrapping paper you have from birthdays and holidays.

Have the children cut the paper with child safety scissors. As their skills mature, have them cut out the shapes on the paper, for example, balloons, snowmen, baby dolls, etc.

This is great for a rainy day activity. Paste the pieces on paper and make a collage.