

Copying from a model

- Have the child face the board when copying.
- Provide a copy of class notes that the child can highlight or utilize note taker paper with a peer buddy in addition to their own to supplement any information they may have missed.
- Provide a near point copy of the work to be copied if the child is having difficulty completing a far point copying activity.