

Curriculum and Coaching: A Perfect Match

Megan Drury
and
Joan Altshuler

Objectives

Participants will...

- Learn how to analyze curriculum materials.
- Gain ideas for supporting teachers in making sound curriculum decisions.
- Learn how to use student data to align to curriculum materials.

What do you do when the materials arrive?

- Let's talk about the 5 components of reading.
- What does this offer?
  - Is this different from something else I have?
- Do all students need this?
- Where would it fit and how?
- What are its strengths and weaknesses?
- What type of training would be needed?

Time to consider the students and teachers...

- Who would benefit from using the curriculum?
- What teachers need to be trained?

Teachers and Students

- What format and time do you need to train the appropriate teachers?
- What is realistic?
- What pieces of the curriculum need emphasis?
- What follow-up will the teachers need in the classroom?
- What are the needs of your students?
- How could this material meet those needs?
- Do all of your students need these materials?
- What setting would be appropriate?
