Teachers,

Below is the instructional routine for teaching the "Word of the Day". Refer to the monthly word list and revised School-wide Instructional Focus Calendar for target words. This routine should be completed only on odd days (see calendar) from 1:40 p.m. to 1:50 p.m.

Instructional Routine for Teaching Word of the Day
	Teacher pronounces target word and students repeat it.
	Teacher explains target word using student friendly definitions.
	Teacher discusses at least two meaningful examples. Students generate and discuss their own examples and sentences.
	Teacher provides synonyms and/or antonyms using the target word, and also focuses on word parts (prefixes, suffixes, base words, root words, etc.) if applicable.
	Teacher reviews previous target words (if time permits)
