

Southern Life During the Colonial Period Trunk Overview

Our trunk is designed to introduce students to the way families lived during the Colonial Period in the southern states. It is intended to get the students interested in learning more about this time period.

The trunk includes: Bees Wax Candle, White Cotton Cap, Three-Cornered Hat, Branch of Cotton, Quill Pens (Use watered down paint for ink), Building Nail, Fan, Examples of Colonial Writing, Colonial Recipe Booklet, George Washington & Thomas Jefferson Dolls, Picture Disk of Colonial Homes, as well as additional articles to read about home life during the colonial times.

Please contact Jennifer Woodington or Laura Melton at Scott Lake Elementary to use the trunk.
