

Federalists vs. Anti-Federalists Views of the Constitution
8th Grade United States History
Jennifer Cunningham, Bartow Middle School

When the leaders of the United States realized the Articles of Confederation needed revising, everyone had an opinion on how the government should be established and where the power should lie. While writing the Constitution two major parties developed: Federalists and Anti-Federalists, each believing the nation should be run according to their plan. The following questions will prompt you to consider both parties and their beliefs on how to form the new government. At the end you will be required to write essay outlining how the powers of the government are divided and how each party feels about the outcome.

Document 1:

I would propose next that in addition to the present federal powers, the national Government should be armed with positive and compleat [complete] authority in all cases which require uniformity; such as the regulation of trade, including the right of taxing both exports & imports, the fixing the terms and forms of naturalization, &c
&c.
James Madison to George Washington, April 16, 1787

http://memory.loc.gov/cgi-bin/query/D?mjmtext:1:/temp/~ammem\_hWbn::

1. Who wrote this statement? Who was he writing to?
2. What type of powers does the author believe the national government should “be armed with positive and complete authority”?
3. What are two examples of the powers?
4. Does the author support or oppose the Constitution?

Document 2:

---After such a declaration, what security does the Constitution of the several States afford the liberty of the press and other invaluable personal rights, not provided for by the new plan?--Does not his sweeping clause subject every thing to the controul [control] of Congress?

In the plan of Confederation of 1778, now existing, it was thought proper by Article the 2d, to declare that each State retains its sovereignty, freedom and independence, and every power, jurisdiction and right, which is not by this Confederation expressly delegated to the United States in Congress assembled.

George Byran
Originally printed in Freeman's Press October 24, 1787

Digital ID: bdsdcc c0701 <http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.rbc/bdsdcc.c0701>

5. Who wrote this article? In what publications was it originally printed? When was it originally printed?
6. What rights were not provided for in the new plan [the Constitution]?
7. If these rights were taken away, everything will be subject to the control of which group?
8. What did the states retain under the Articles of Confederation?
9. Does the author support or oppose the Constitution?

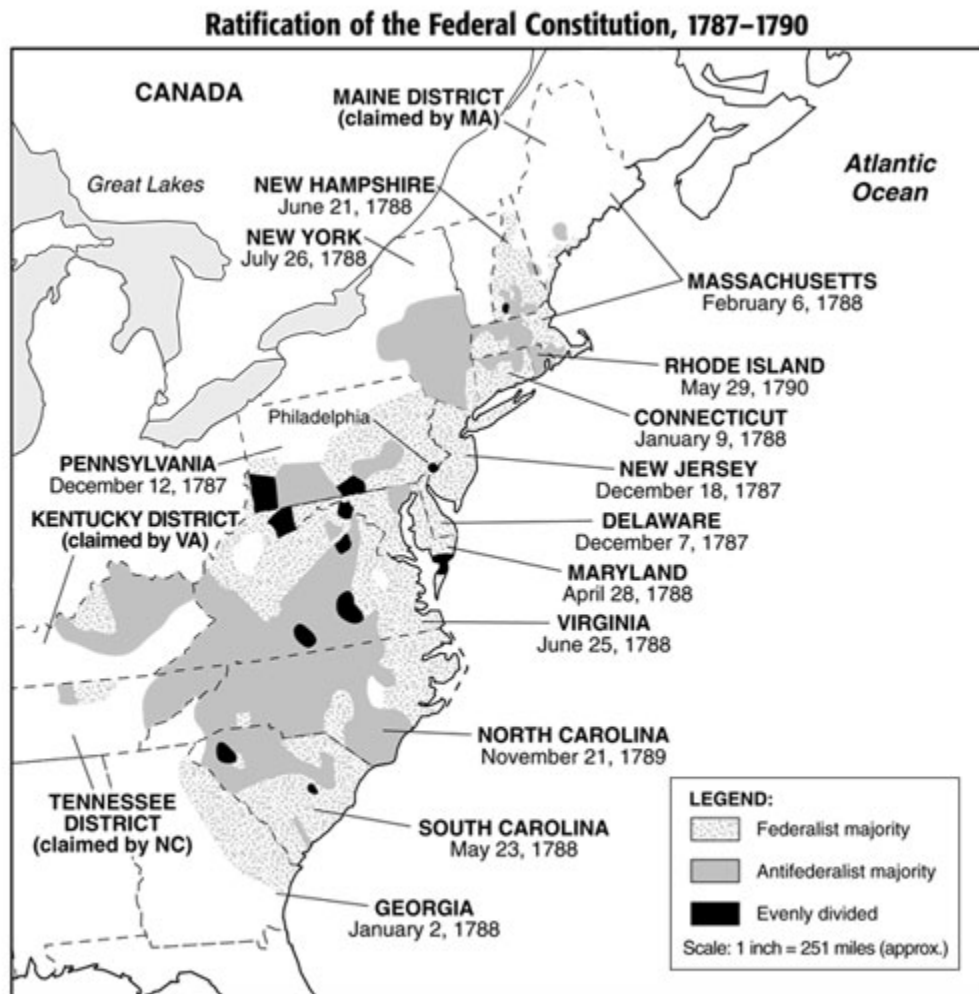

Document 3:

|   | Federalists  | Anti-Federalists   |
|---|---|---|
| Leaders                                  | Alexander HamiltonJohn AdamsGeorge Washington                               | Thomas JeffersonJames Madison   |
| Types of People that supported the Party | Large landownersJudgesLawyersLeading clergymen (preachers)Merchants | Small farmersSmall landownersDebtors  |
| Main Beliefs                             | The Constitution should have implied powers.Want a strong federal government    | Believe in limited federal powers—only enumerated powers (specifically stated powers)Want strong state governments. |

http://www.historyofsupremecourt.org/resources/lp\_defines\_federalists.htm

10. Which group was supported by the “rich”? Which group was supported by the “poor”?
11. Which group supported a strong federal government?
12. Which group wanted the states to have more power?

Document 4:

Adapted from map "Ratification of the Federal Constitution" from American History Atlas, by Martin Gilbert. Copyright © 1968 by Weidenfeld and Nicolson. Reprinted by permission of Routledge.

13. In which states were most of the Federalists located?
14. In which states were most of the Anti-Federalists located?
15. What were the first three states to ratify the Constitution? Were these states considered Federalists or Anti-Federalists?
16. Why do you think it took Virginia and New Jersey so long to ratify the Constitution?

Document 5:

| The Articles of Confederation and the Constitution  |  |
|--|--|
| ARTICLES  | CONSTITUTION  |
| EXECUTIVE BRANCH  |  |
| No executive to administer and enforce legislation; Congress has sole authority to governExecutive committee to oversee government when Congress is out of session | President administers and enforces federal laws  |
| LEGISLATIVE BRANCH  |  |
| A unicameral (one-house) legislatureEach state has one vote, regardless of populationNine votes (of the original 13) to enact major legislation            | A bicameral (two-house) legislatureEach state has equal representation in the Senate; each state is represented according to population in the House of RepresentativesSimple majority to enact legislation  |
| JUDICIAL BRANCH   |  |
| No national court systemCongress to establish temporary courts to hear cases of piracy   | National court system, headed by the Supreme CourtCourts to hear cases involving national laws, treaties, and the Constitution as well as cases between states, between citizens of different states, or between a state and citizen of another state  |
| OTHER MATTERS   |  |
| Admission to the Confederation by 9 votes (of 13)Amendment of the Articles by unanimous voteThe states retain independence                                 | Congress to admit new states; all must have a republican form of governmentAmendment of the Constitution by two-thirds vote of both houses of Congress or by national convention, followed by ratification by three fourths of the statesThe states accept the Constitution as the supreme law of the land |

Call to Freedom, Holt, Rinehart, Winston: 2005. page 209.

1. Did the federal government have more power under the Articles of Confederation or the Constitution?
2. What about the Articles of Confederation caused problems for the United States?
3. What are 5 differences between the Articles of Confederation and the Constitution?
4. Would the Federalists support the Articles of Confederation or the Constitution? Explain.
5. Would the Anti-federalists support the Articles of Confederation or the Constitution? Explain.

Final Question:

Write a 5 paragraph essay answering the following question. Use at least 3 examples from sources above to support your answer.

Explain why the Framers of the United States Constitution ultimately decided to give more power to the Federal government rather than the state governments, be sure to include the Federalists and Anti-federalists views of the outcome.

| Question Numbers  | Points Value  | Total Points |
|---|---------------|--------------|
| Primary Source Readings—Adams and Bryan             | 2 points each | 18           |
| Federalist vs. Anti-FederalistChart                 | 3 points each | 9            |
| Map Questions   | 3 points each | 12           |
| Articles of Confederation vs.Constitution Questions | 4 points each | 20           |
| Total  |               | 59    |

| Essay Requirements  | Points Value |
|---|--------------|
| Answers question thoroughly   | 20 points    |
| Provides at least 3 examples from sources                           | 15 points    |
| Correct sentence structure, punctuation,spelling, grammar, etc. | 10 points    |
| Total  | 45    |

| Total DBQ        | Points Value |
|------------------|--------------|
| Source Questions | 59           |
| Essay            | 45           |
| Total     | 104   |