Document A

Source: Alfred Mahon, 1890

“Americans are ceasing to be fighting animals...becoming fattened cattle fit only for slaughter...Whether they will or no, Americans must now begin to look outwards....a strong navy is crucial...”

Document B

Source: On the Frontier, Frederick Jackson Turner, 1892

“American Democracy was born of no theorist's dream. It was not caused by the Susan Constant to Virginia nor in the Mayflower to Plymouth. It came stark and strong and full of life out of the American Forest, and it gained new strength each time it touched a new frontier”
Document C

“You give me the pictures and I will give you the war”

Document D

Source: Teddy Roosevelt, American President, 1901-1908

“Speak softly and carry a big stick….there comes a time in the life of a nation, as in the life of an individual, when it must face great responsibilities whether it will or no….We have now reached that time. We cannot avoid facing the fact that we occupy a new place among the people of the world….Our flag is a proud flag, and it stands for liberty and civilization. Where it once floated there must be no return to tyranny.

Document F

Source: Platform of American Anti-Imperialist League, October 18, 1899

“We hold that the policy known as imperialism is hostile to liberty and tends towards, an evil from which it has been our glory to be free. We regret that it has become necessary in the land of Washington and Lincoln to reaffirm that all men of whatever race or color are entitled to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. We maintain that government derives their just powers from the consent of the governed. We insist that the subjugation of any people is “criminal aggression” and open disloyalty to the distinctive principles’ of our government”

Document G

Source: Albert J. Beveridge, Speech in the U.S. Senate, 1900

“God has not been preparing the English-Speaking and Teutonic peoples for a thousand years for nothing but vain and idle self admiration. No. He made us master organizers of the world to establish system where chaos reigned. He has given us the spirit of progress to overwhelm the forces of reaction throughout the earth. He has made us adept in government that we may administer government among savage and senile peoples. Were it not for such a force as this the world would relapse into barbarianism and night. And of all our race he has marked the American people as his chosen nation to finally lead the redemption of the world”
